Earlier we had reported :

CNN Anderson Cooper Caught Red Handed, While Staging Fake Syria News

Now in another shocking development, ATS forum member "The_Professional " on August 6, 2012 posted the thread, in which he/she exposed CNN.

"The_Professional " provided the screenshot of comment, which was posted by blogger "Land Destroyer" (Anti Paid Media Blogger) and later deleted by CNN.

Screenshot of removed comment

Today we check the same CNN news article from which "Land Destroyer" comment was removed :

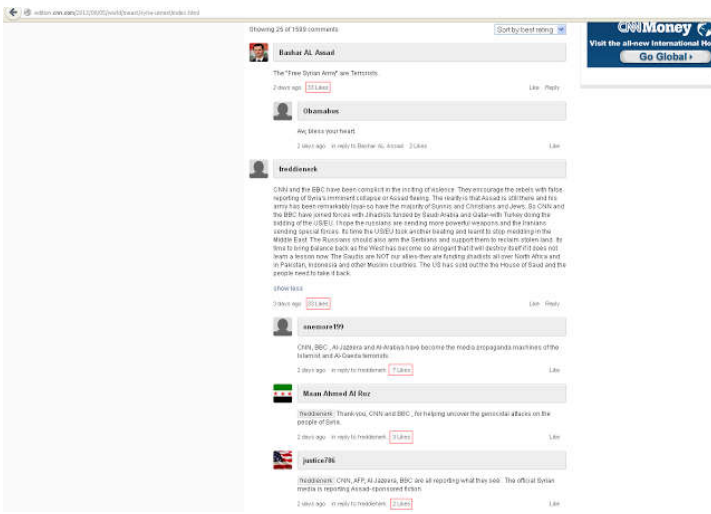

<http://edition.cnn.com/2012/08/05/world/meast/syria-unrest/index.html>

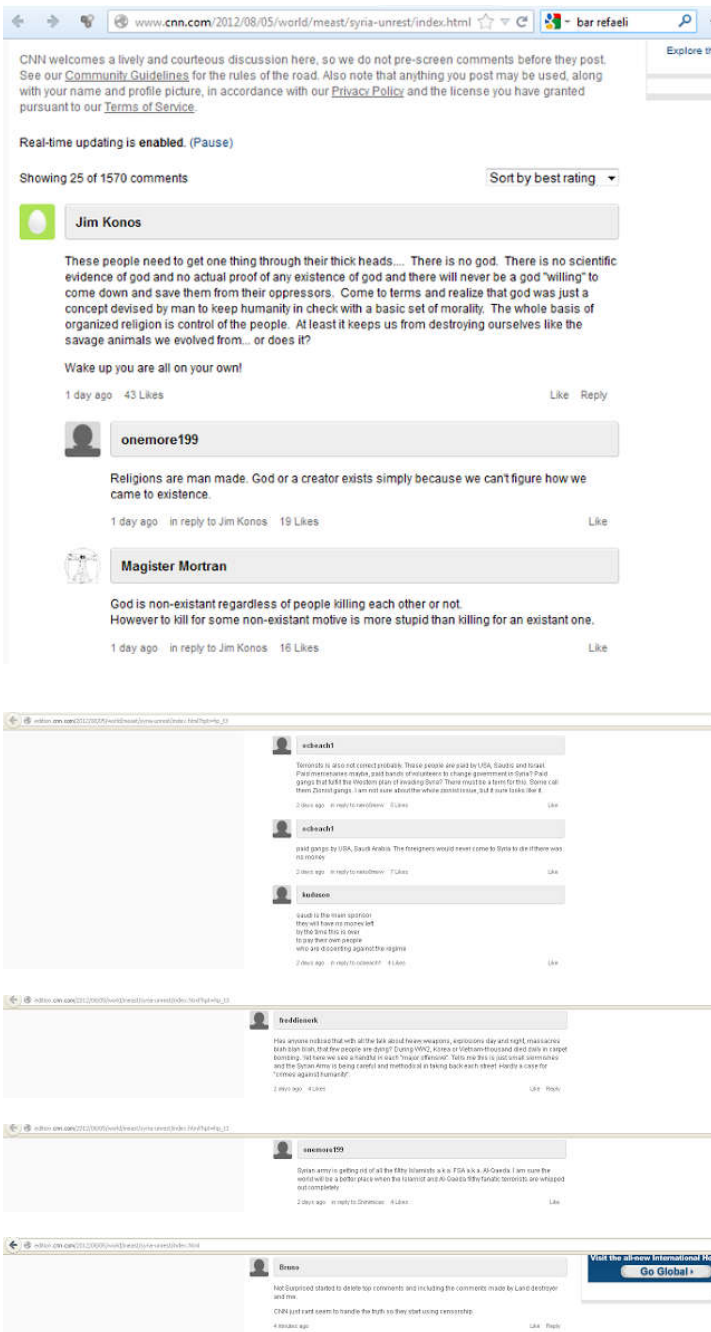

Screenshot of original news article

And find some more shocking findings.

1. CNN removed/censored the other highly rated comments as well, so that they don't appear under " 25 best rated comments".
2. CNN / FSA trolls posted the Pro-FSA (Free Syrian Army) comments in response to only 2 highly rated comment (rest 23 are not highly rated but surprisingly showing under top 25), which CNN is showing at the moment.

Down below are the screenshots of top rated comments, which have been censored from top 25 best rated comments list by CNN.com

Update:

Angry CNN reader posted down below comment on their news article, against CNN censorship and Pro-SFA propaganda.

Down below is comment text :

Not Surprised started to delete top comments and including the comments made by Land destroyer and me.CNN just cant seem to handle the truth so they start using censorship.: Bruno

I should have done the same (screenshots) when a similar thing happened to one of my comments on the BBC website. A few months back when MSM was reporting of the "massacre" in which they used a photo taken in Iraq almost a decade earlier... which was being used as "evidence" to support claims of the scale of this massacre.

I posted something on the BBC site along the lines of "why is the BBC using unrelated images/video as a means to persuade public opinion" and went on about how wrong this is. I ended up being banned (they disabled my account) after posting the comment... which funny enough didn't even appear on the site as comments have to be approved by the moderators anyway.

Not surprised that CNN is using the same tactic. I've witnessed it first hand.

It's selective journalism, using peoples contributions (in the form of comments) to sway opinions on the greater general public.

all i ever see on MSM sites which have comments on articles related to Syria is pro-intervention policies.

It's sickening.

Not surprising. CNN, NBC, ABC, Fox, MSNBC, Yahoo, all of the mainstream sites censor truth when you post it on their site. I have been censored so many times for posting the simple truth that I no longer visit those sites for any reason nor do I watch TV.

That is why all mainstream sites should be ignored. They should be viewed as mind control/manipulation. Only alternative sites should be paid attention to. While not all alternative sites tell the truth, many are. Or at least trying to. Soon the MSM will dissolve completely as more people wake up.

It is the same media of the UK-US-Israel under the control of the corporatist, bankers, and Zionists who want war with Syria to expand more territory etc. This is not the first time it has happened, but I expected it to happen, so I prepared for it.

I recently was shocked when YAHOO, did the same to me. I replied on a thread about Romney...my post was something along the lines of saying ..

"Fox news is a propaganda machine as is all MSM, their goal is to trick the poorer, less educated, and MAJORITY into voting for the top 1% needs. So they spend MILLIONS on advertising, messages, and brainwashing us with misinfo...and the majority of the public falls for it."

No profanity or direct personal attacks on any other poster..then I got this message from Yahoo, threatening to SUSPEND my account, they sent me a link to "review terms of service" which was 20 pages long...If I lose my yahoo account for email, it's all tied to everything I own and do, bank, bills, contacts, social media, etc etc. I've had this account for over 12 years now. NEVER had a threat like that.

Looks like they are trying to slowly muzzle those of us trying to WAKE UP the rest.

Good job, keep spreading the word....CHANGE is COMING. The truth can't hide forever!

Because that's the way the (Caballa News Network) operates. It tell's you what it wants you to know. Contrite entertainment is all CNN is. All CNN has going for it is the bevy of beauties reading the teleprompter.

So CNN chose to place a comment at the top that would keep the masses fighting among themselves - religion.

The tactic has been the same for thousands of years. Divide and conquer.

Some good news can be found in that MSNBC doesn't seem to delete posts going against the article's intended message. That topic was "Kofi Annan quits role as UN's Syria envoy".

Every morning I make sure to check MSN.com and comment on any Syria related stories. I often get top comment but they don't delete it. Yahoo and CNN definitely do and did to me.

But look at how many votes that CNN comment had before it was deleted. Them deleting it shows their fear and shows people are indeed waking up. Their end is near. CNN's plummeting viewership each month proves that we're gradually winning. They lost nearly 50% of their viewers since 2008 while alternative media grows.

The creation of television is the biggest crime ever committed. it is the biggest propaganda machine know to man kind. mainstream news is not there to inform you on want you would like to know its there for "them" to tell you what "they" want you to know. its all just a game.

Its nothing but smoke and mirrors, shadows and lies. the veil of secrecy has been thrown over the eyes of the people. you know a society is in the throws of enslavement when all that people ever think about is money, money, money.

Money, money, money, and sex, sex, sex. It's a sign of decadence, and America is a decadent society, having been transformed into one since WW2 by television. American culture was deliberately attacked by those who control television, mostly wealthy Zionist Jews. American culture before WW2 was Protestant Christian culture, which, regardless of how many people like to sneer at it, was solid as a rock and productive and healthy. The Jews wanted to destroy it, and they've been working on its destruction for the past seventy years or so. They managed to encourage an atheistic, hedonistic culture devoid of higher principles and largely bereft of ethical values. They've managed to take the spiritual out of American culture and turn it into a completely materialistic swamp. All that matters to most brainwashed zombies is money and possessions. They don't want to strive, or learn, or grow, or create, they want to amuse themselves without effort. We have the Jews to thank for this. They set about undermining the Protestant Christian work ethic, and they were largely successful.

The media is a tool.

It is not there to inform but there to serve their purpose.

You think this is bad, just wait til full-internet-censorship comes into place... it's coming.

Yes, I actually posted on this thread and was deleted so quick but beforehand i noticed I had 80+ comments Mostly angered citizens whom didn't believe me.

I pointed to a article in the Washington post that mentions in the wake of the FSA Advancing on the city it actually pushed out and "cleansed" (Authors description not mine) the 80,000 population of Syrian Christians out of their land.

Yup, quickly deleted, I bet if the public knew that Tax payer money was used to push out Syrian Christians, they would think a lot different of using this army.

I was able to see the reply for a quick second then zoom gone.

Stop whining. Everything is a lie, so don't look at it. Take things at face value, don't give me your opinion or theory because you aren't educated inthe subject, and if you are "educated", then I still don't care because it is false information spoon fed to you anyway. Don't bother commenting on my spelling errors, i don't care...happy fishing!

The same thing happened to me as well, as I posted a comment with a link to a European site having graphic pictures in order to show the truth of what's actually going on.

Of course they deleted it even though it was getting popular.

I don't post comments on CNN any more as well as BBC.

On BBC they censored my comment when they used pictures from Iraq displayed as pictures from Syria.

It's disgusting how they treat their websites visitors.

And all this is happening in the "free" western media who always criticize the Russian or other media for being complicit to their governments...

I have to be honest - I've recently had comments that didn't violate any terms but received tons of upvotes suddenly deleted off of CNN.com. They are clearly censoring stuff - although I don't quite understand what the motivation is. I can't seem to find any theme to what's being censored. Lately I'd say 10 percent of my comments get posted - and I don't even post political views! Not sure what's going on there...

CNN deletes an blocks threads all the time and it isn't for foul language or rudeness. I have seen this numerous times now and had it happen to me more than once. If you argue an opposing view to their story there's a very good chance you will have your stuff deleted. This has become their standard MO. Given this mindset I hardly trust any news out of CNN anymore.

CNN deletes any comment I try to make, no matter what it says in mere seconds after being posted. They clearly try and create a narrative to their liking, making it look like all of America having the same mindset. It's ludicrous! It's all propaganda and cannot be trusted... This country is in BIG trouble, and a good portion of the blame goes to the MSM. Makes me sick to my stomach!

Your comment will be visible after approval.

Wonder WHY did You not post original ACTIVE news and thread address here, WHY ???
You link to some unknown blogger, but not to a news post you blame about, are You kidding, you trolls have to get your act better.

Only link You did provide, un-active one, in hope no one will take work to copy paste it to browser, is "http://edition.cnn.com/2012/08/05/world/meast/syria-unrest/index.html" ohh.. and You know what, THERE IS 0 COMMENTS ON IT ... so NO ONE SELECTED HES COMMENT FROM IT AND TARGET IT TO BE DELETED ... You commie murder supporting propaganda is sick. sickening.

To think, that Russia is on the side of Iran or Syria you must be OUT OF YOUR MIND, and child like ignorant, if you need explanation on it, then ask.
